Learn About Peace in "Kanoya"

Within Kanoya City there are 3 airfields from the Pacific War. Historically, in all of Japan, these are where the most Kamikaze fighters were sent out from to attack. 908 Kamikaze fighters were sent out from the Kanoya Naval Air Corps Base and 363 were sent out from the Kushira Base all to lose their precious lives.

Aira Imperial Tomb (Aira no yama no ue no misasagi) (Aira sanyo)
Aira Sanyo is one of three ancient imperial tombs within the prefecture. This rare grotto tomb is the resting place for the Jinmu Emperor's father (Ugayafukiaezu no mikoto), as well as his mother (Tamayorihiime). The path to the shrine stretches 500m with its divine atmosphere. This resemblance to Ise Shrine gives it the nickname "Little Ise." Aira Sanyo is also famous for its cherry blossoms in Spring and leaf colors in autumn.
