Exciting bullfights

During the days of the mainland Satsuma clan's sovereign, bullfight was the only leisure among the locals. Today, many visitors come to see the competitions (3 times/year) and the venue gets filled with excitement.

The island is famous as a sport venue. Since 1988, many athletes have visited this island to participate to the 98km triathlon competition (swim, bike, and run). Naoko Road medalist is a part of the course.

Island of longevity (Two large families)

Mr. Shigechiro Izumi and Ms. Kamato Hongo, once listed as world oldest persons in Guinness World Records, were both from Isencho, Tokunoshima. The island is known for longevity as well as for the top birth rate in Japan.
